This roster of alternative dispute resolution providers is created and maintained by the Department of Administration as required by s. 66.0217(6)(b) Wis. Stats., and can be found on the Department's municipal boundary review program <https://doa.wi.gov/municipalboundaryreview>

The roster is designed to assist local communities, citizens, and others in locating and selecting trained and experienced individuals to assist them in resolving municipal boundary, land use, environmental, and other intergovernmental conflicts. Inclusion on this roster is not an endorsement or certification by the Department, nor is the Department responsible for the accuracy of the information provided. Completion of the Application for Inclusion on the DOA Roster of Dispute Resolution Providers for Local Governments is the only requirement for being on the roster. Therefore, care should be exercised when selecting an individual. See Tips on Selecting a Dispute Resolution Provider, available at the website above, for ideas on selecting an individual. Various dispute resolution associations may also provide information to assist with selection. See the website above for contact information for these associations.
