Experience

Briefly describe your experience working with disputes involving municipalities or other public/private sector entities involving issue areas such as engineering and public works, municipal contracts, intergovernmental agreements, boundaries, land use, environmental problems, neighborhood disputes, personnel or workplace, or other comparable intra- or intergovernmental disputes.

As a former Dane County Circuit Court Judge, Wisconsin Assistant Attorney General, private practice attorney and administrative law judge with the Public Service Commission, I have had hundreds of trials and hearings (including arbitrations and mediations). My diverse state government experience (which includes being the Chief of Staff to the Governor and Chief Legal Counsel for the Department of Health and Social Services) included work with TIF, boundary disputes, municipal agreements, municipal bonds, water, sewer and utility issues, annexation, Indian Law, local taxation, environmental, incorporation and other local government issues.

I presided over scores of Energy and telecommunications matters involving municipalities and municipal utilities, including transmission and power plant siting cases and municipal rate proceedings.

Illustrative cases:

Clean Wisconsin, Inc. v. Public Service Commission of Wisconsin, 2005 WI 93 (mitigation payments to cities for power plant operations)

City of Madison v. Town of Fitchburg 112 Wis.2d 224 (1983) (incorporation of City of Fitchburg)

Burlington Northern, Inc. v. City of Superior, 131 Wis.2d 564 (1986) (municipal excise tax)

Please identify whether you may have particular subject matter expertise in any of the following areas: Business/Corporate, Community/Neighborhood, Contracts, Employment/Workplace; Labor Union/Management, Health Care, Civil Engineering/Public Works; Environmental; Municipal Finance
