This architectural floor plan depicts a large, multi-winged office building. The layout is organized into several distinct sections, each identified by a unique number or code. The plan includes a variety of room types, such as individual offices, conference rooms, a central lobby, restrooms, and specialized service areas like a copy/break room and a storage room. Key features include a central lobby area (456), a large open area (456), and a central staircase (V408). The plan also shows structural elements like stairs, elevators, and mechanical rooms. The overall design is functional and efficient, with clear circulation paths and well-defined room boundaries. The plan is divided into several wings and sections, each with a unique identifier (e.g., 418.01, 450.01, 472.01). Key areas include offices, conference rooms, a central lobby, restrooms, and a large open area labeled 456. The plan also shows structural elements like stairs, elevators, and mechanical rooms.
