Re: GL37 Letter (Answer Has Yet To Be Filed) was sent in error.

Dear Practitioner,

You may be aware that pursuant to a recent Memorandum of Understanding, it has been clarified that the statutorily granted responsibility for receiving answers lies with OWCH/DHA. All answers should now be filed with OWCH/DHA. However, during this transition, it has come to our attention that automatic form letters have continued to go out informing the parties that an answer has not been filed. Please note that this is a temporary glitch caused by the transition. If you have filed your answer, please disregard the letter.

Sincerely,

The Office of Worker's Compensation Hearings
Division of Hearings and Appeals
