- a. The text of Section E is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:
  - E. Disaster Clause. In the event that a natural or human-made disaster renders impossible the operation of fifty (50) percent or more of the Class III electronic games of chance operated by the Tribe under this Compact for a period of fourteen (14) consecutive days or more (the “Closure Period”), the Payment Date for each State Fiscal Year during which all or a portion of the Closure Period occurs shall be extended and the Tribe’s combined Milwaukee Facility Annual Payment and Other Annual Payment (collectively the “Annual Payment”) shall be reduced as set forth in this section. For purposes of clarity, the Tribe’s decision to reduce operations at its gaming facilities in response to a public health emergency shall be deemed a disaster for purposes of this section.
    - 1. To invoke the provisions of this section, prior to the Payment Date of each State Fiscal Year in which the disaster occurs the Tribe shall provide the State with written notice describing the nature of the disaster and the number of Class III electronic games of chance that ceased operation.

2. The Tribe's Annual Payment due in each State Fiscal Year during which all or a portion of the Closure Period occurs shall be reduced by a percentage equal to the percentage decrease in the Net Win for the Tribal Fiscal Year in which the Closure Period occurred compared with the Net Win for the previous Tribal Fiscal Year.
3. The Tribe's Annual Payment shall be due on or before December 1 of the calendar year in which the Annual Payment otherwise would have been due.

For all Closure Periods, the State and Tribe shall meet to discuss the possibility of providing the Tribe additional assistance in light of the severity of the disaster.

11. Article XXXIV, Procedures for Rules of Play and Minimum Internal Control Standards, is amended as follows:

- a. In Section XXXIV.A, the fourth sentence, which begins with "Until minimum control standards are established . . ." and ends with ". . . Federal Register (publication date)" is deleted.

E. Amendments to Rules of Play and Minimum Internal Control Standards.
  - iii. A new subsection introduction is added before the remaining existing text of the section and states:
    1. Except with respect to minimum internal control standards relating to event wagering or remote wagering, amendments to rules of play and minimum internal control standards shall be made as set forth below:
  - iv. A new subsection 2 is created and states:
    2. Except as otherwise provided in Article XXXVIII, the initial minimum internal control standards relating to event wagering or remote wagering and any amendments thereto shall be made only by mutual agreement of the parties. The Tribe may propose amendments to the Tribe's minimum internal control standards governing event wagering and/or remote wagering at any time. The Tribe and the State shall enter into good faith negotiations regarding such proposed minimum internal controls or amendments within thirty (30) days of the State's receipt of the proposed minimum internal controls, except that the State shall have no obligation to negotiate regarding proposed minimum internal control standards governing events occurring in Wisconsin or involving Wisconsin teams that do not occur on land owned by the Tribe or held in trust for the Tribe by the federal government. Disputes regarding minimum internal control standards and rules of play for event wagering and remote wagering shall be resolved through arbitration pursuant to Section XXXIV.D. except that subsection XXXIV.D.3., shall not apply and the standard to be applied by the arbitrator shall be whether the proposed minimum internal controls and rules of play at issue are substantially the same as those agreed to by the State and other Wisconsin tribes and nations.

12. Article XXXVI, Data Reporting, is amended as follows:

- a. The current text of Section XXXVI.B. is deleted and replaced with the following:
  - B. The Tribe shall submit the following, or such other information as the Tribe and Department agree, to the Department on a monthly basis, in an electronic format determined in the reasonable discretion of the Tribe, not later than fourteen (14) days after the conclusion of each calendar month:
    - a. Daily revenue information for table games: type of table game, table number, shift, opening inventory, fills, credits, adjustments, closing inventory, drop, and win/loss; and
    - b. Daily revenue information for event wagering: the total amount of all wagers received less voided or canceled wagers and amounts paid out for winning wagers and the total amount of the write on events or games that occur during the month or will occur in subsequent months, less gaming payouts.

13. Article XXXVIII, Event Wagering, is created and reads as follows:

XXXVIII. EVENT WAGERING.

- A. The Tribe shall adopt minimum internal control standards and rules of play governing event wagering which shall be approved by the Department as provided in this Compact. Rules of play for event wagering shall be publicly posted and a copy shall be made readily available to players upon request.
- B. Event wagers placed using remote wagering devices shall be placed only from locations permitted by the Tribe's minimum internal control standards governing event wagering.
- C. Event wagers shall be placed only on permitted events as set forth in the Tribe's minimum internal control standards governing event wagering.
- D. If the scope of permissible event wagering in the state is expanded in any of the manners set forth below, then, upon written notice by the Tribe to the Department, the Tribe's minimum internal control standards shall be deemed to include such expansion of scope and promptly thereafter the Tribe and the State shall negotiate in good faith to amend the Tribe's minimum internal control standards to reflect the change:

1. The State legalizes event wagering on an event or events not included as permitted events in the Tribe's minimum internal control standards.
  2. The State legalizes event wagering which allows a customer located outside of land owned by a Wisconsin Indian Tribe or held in trust by the federal government for the benefit of a Wisconsin Indian Tribe to place an event wager through the use of a remote wagering device.
  3. The State enters a Tribal-State gaming compact or gaming compact amendment with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, or agrees to minimum internal control standards with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, which allow event wagering on an event or events not included as permitted events in the Tribe's minimum internal control standards, or the Secretary of the United States Department of the Interior prescribes procedures for another Wisconsin Indian Tribe pursuant to section 11((d)(7)(B)(vii) of the Act which allow event wagering on an event or events not included as permitted events in the Tribe's minimum internal control standards.
  4. The State enters a Tribal-State gaming compact or gaming compact amendment with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, or agrees to minimum internal control standards with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, which allow event wagering through the use of remote wagering devices under terms more favorable than those set forth in the Tribe's minimum internal control standards, including but not limited to permitted locations, or if the Secretary of the United States Department of the Interior prescribes procedures for another Wisconsin Indian Tribe pursuant to section 11((d)(7)(B)(vii) of the Act which allow event wagering through the use of remote wagering devices under terms more favorable than those set forth in the Tribe's minimum internal control standards, including but not limited to permitted locations.
  5. The State enters a Tribal-State gaming compact or compact amendment with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, or enters an agreement with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, or agrees to minimum internal control standards with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, which provide for a different procedure or procedures than set forth in the Tribe's minimum internal control standards for adding permitted events for event wagering.
- E. Promptly, but no later than ten (10) business days after entering a Tribal-State compact or compact amendment with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, or entering an agreement with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, or agreeing to minimum internal control standards with another Wisconsin Indian Tribe, which address permitted events for event wagering and/or permitted locations for remote wagering and/or procedures for adding permitted events for event wagering, the State shall provide written notice to the Tribe together with a copy of such compact, compact amendment, agreement, and/or minimum internal control standards.

Both the Tribe and the State have legitimate interests in protecting the integrity of events subject to event wagering.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Forest County Potawatomi Community of Wisconsin and the State of Wisconsin have hereunto set their hands and seals.
