Ivory Kelly started her career in tribal gaming with the Ho Chunk Nation in 1999. While working for the Ho Chunk Nation Ivory, had the opportunity to work in multiple area's including food & beverage, slots and table games. Ivory has also worked for Mystic Lake Casino, Shakopee MN, and Oneida Casino as slot supervisor and executive assistant. In 2017 Ivory joined the Oneida Gaming Commission and worked as a background's investigator, but quickly moved up to her current role the Compliance Manager. In 2023 Ivory was nominated to serve as the National Tribal Gaming Commission Regulators Association (NTGCR) Midwest Alternate and the Communications sub-committee, Chairperson. It is through these varied roles that Ivory has been able to enhance her knowledge and gain a greater understanding of the many facets within the gaming industry.

Ivory earned her master's degree in criminal justice with a minor in public administration from Southern New Hampshire University.

Growth is the most important thing to Ivory in any role she accepts. Not just her own potential for growth, but those on her team and the organization's overall opportunity for success. She believes the presence of opportunity embodies the drive to gain knowledge while welcoming innovation to achieve results.
