

Derek Olson

Cybersecurity Consultant

derek.olson@wipfli.com

Derek Olson is a cybersecurity consultant in Wipfli's cybersecurity practice. His primary responsibilities include working on Cyber Governance, Risk and Compliance engagements including business continuity, incident response, cyber assessments, and information security program assistance, as well as social engineering testing.

Dan Miller

Senior Information Technology Manager

Green Bay office
920 662 2898
dmiller@wipfli.com

wipfli.com

With over 40 years of experience, Dan Miller is a senior manager on the CyberTech team in Wipfli LLP's Green Bay office. He works with clients in the areas of technology infrastructure, IT strategic planning and staff development, technology risk management, business continuity planning, and information security. Dan offers a unique perspective and approach to developing technology and organizational alignment tailored to his clients' needs, utilizing his past experiences and industry best practices. He provides staff development leadership to his team and is involved with Covey International's 7 Habits training.

Specializations

- IT assessment
- IT strategic planning
- IT and business alignment
- Information security consulting and risk assessment
- Business continuity planning
- Process improvement
- Outsourced CIO and CISO
- Project management

Past Experience

- Chief information security officer at Wipfli
- Technology consultant
- Corporate technology team leadership
- Green Bay Optimist Club - Board member
- Wisconsin Bankers Association - Technology & Risk Management School - Instructor
- Junior Achievement - Excellence Through Ethics - Volunteer
- Northeast Wisconsin Christian Homeschool Athletic Association - President and founding member

Professional Memberships and Activities

- Green Bay Chamber of Commerce Advance Economic Development Program - Board member
- Youth coach for various sports teams

Education

University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

- Undergraduate degree in business administration with an emphasis on human resources

WIPFLI