DOA Awards Nearly $1 Million in Diesel Idling Reduction Grants

The Department of Administration (DOA) announces that it is awarding nearly $1 million in diesel truck idling reduction grants to 52 Wisconsin motor carriers. These grants will help fund diesel truck idling reduction technologies.

“Transportation is a key industry in our state,” said DOA Secretary Mike Huebsch. “These grants will help our trucking industry save money and fuel, and improve air quality. Our partnership with the trucking industry will save 1,000,000 gallons of diesel fuel this year alone.”

Idling reduction units provide an alternative source of power to heat, cool, or provide electricity to the cab and parts of the truck in lieu of operating the truck’s main drive engine. In Wisconsin, more than 13,000 long-haul heavy-duty trucks idle overnight for required rest stops, using almost 14 million gallons of fuel per year.

Idling reduction technology can reduce the amount of fuel used without compromising driver comfort or vehicle equipment operations. These idling reduction technologies will help companies to save on fuel costs and reduce the effects of diesel fuel pollution.

DOA’s Division of Energy Services manages the Diesel Truck Idling Reduction Grant Program. This program provides Wisconsin-based trucking companies up to 50% reimbursement for idling reduction equipment and installation on heavy-duty diesel truck-tractors.
