MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

Greetings, and welcome to the 2011–2013 portrait of Wisconsin's oldest state agency, the Board of Commissioners of Public Lands.

More than 165 years ago, when Wisconsin's founders were drafting a constitution, they couldn't agree on much. Among the issues being debated were a woman's right to own property, African-Americans' and immigrants' right to vote and the right of privately owned banks to operate in the state.

The Constitutional Convention of 1846 dissolved in chaos with agreement on only one thing: the concept of putting the Attorney General, the Secretary of State and the State Treasurer in charge of accepting federal land grants and managing a sizable portion of the land sale proceeds in trust as a stable source of support for public schools and libraries. The Board of Commissioners of Public Lands (BCPL) was mandated in Article 10 of the Wisconsin Constitution, which was ratified two years later at the time of statehood.

Without a single taxpayer dollar, this tiny state agency generates all of the state's financial aid to public elementary, middle and high school libraries; consistently provides millions of dollars in loans for community projects throughout the state and works to keep Wisconsin forests available for sustainable timber production and public recreation.

Through the State Trust Fund Loan Program, the BCPL has financed countless road and sewer projects, building repairs and renovations, fire truck and squad car purchases and, over the last ten years, more than $200 million for economic development throughout the state.

Wisconsin communities have been great customers, and the Board has not experienced a single loan default in 140 years. In the Appendix of this report, you'll find the list of projects by county and community that have benefitted from the Trust Fund Loan Program over the past two years.

Through the programs we manage, Wisconsin's public school libraries annually receive funds to purchase books, newspapers and periodicals, web-based resources, computer hardware and software and other library assets. This support for school libraries helps reduce local property taxes. Also in the Appendix of this report, you'll see the library funds your local schools received in 2012 and 2013.

The structure of the Board of Commissioners of Public Lands has served the trust funds well for 165 years. The Commissioners maintain a long-term view focused on prudent management of the trust assets, without the consideration or influence of partisan politics.

Today, the BCPL manages nearly $930 million in financial assets, maintains roughly 77,000 acres of remaining State Trust Lands for sustainable timber harvests and public recreation, and preserves the original state land records. We do it all with a staff of ten full-time employees and not a single penny of taxpayer money. Our efforts help sustain the founders' commitment to strong communities and public education.

On behalf of the Board of Commissioners of Public Lands and the agency's dedicated staff, thank you for supporting our stewardship of the lands, funds, and records we hold in trust for the people of Wisconsin.

Executive Secretary Tia Nelson

TRUST FUNDS

WISCONSIN CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10, SECTION 2

The proceeds of all lands that have been or hereafter may be granted by the United States to this state for educational purposes...and all moneys and the clear proceeds of all property that may accrue to the state by forfeiture or escheat; and the clear proceeds of all fines collected in the several counties for any breach of the penal law...shall be exclusively applied to the following objects, to wit:

1 To the support and maintenance of common schools, in each school district, and the purchase of suitable libraries and apparatus therefor.

2 The residue shall be appropriated to the support and maintenance of academies and normal schools and suitable libraries and apparatus therefor.

Wheatland Center School

WHEATLAND SCHOOL DISTRICT

More than 96% of State Trust Fund earnings are returned to Wisconsin communities to fund K-12 public school libraries.

At the time of statehood, the federal government granted Wisconsin millions of acres of land to support public education. In the latter half of the 19th Century, nearly all of the land was sold with proceeds deposited into State Trust Funds, as directed by Article 10, Section 2 of the Constitution.

The Board of Commissioners of Public Lands, through the State Trust Fund Loan Program, invests the principal and distributes the earnings of the State Trust Funds to benefit the people and communities of Wisconsin.

Trust Funds Beneficiaries

The BCPL manages four Trust Funds for its beneficiaries: the Common School Fund, Normal School Fund, University Fund and Agricultural College Fund. The Funds are carefully invested to maximize earnings to support public education, as mandated in Article 10 of the State Constitution.

Information on the smaller University Fund and Agricultural College Fund is found in the Appendix.

Common School Fund

The Common School Fund is the largest of the four State Trust Funds. The Common School Fund was established with proceeds from the sale of land granted to Wisconsin by the federal government at the time of statehood.

The principal of the Common School Fund continues to grow because the State Constitution provides that the Fund receives the clear proceeds of all fees, fines and forfeitures (including unclaimed and escheated property) that accrue to the state. The chart at right shows that “clear proceeds” can be as little as 9% of a total forfeiture.

In the 2011-2013 biennium, these clear proceeds added more than $66 million.

Earnings from the Common School Fund are transferred by the BCPL to the Department of Public Instruction for distribution to all public K-12 school districts in the state as aid to school libraries. These funds are used to purchase books, newspapers, periodicals, computers and other library media resources.

Distributions are allocated based on the school age population within each district. For most public school libraries, the Common School Fund is the sole source of state funding.

The amount of library aid to your school district is found in the Appendix.

Normal School Fund

The State Constitution created a “school fund” for the support and maintenance of common (public K-12) schools and normal schools (teachers colleges). Whatever income was not needed for common schools was appropriated for the normal schools. Today, the University of Wisconsin System is the successor to the normal schools of years ago.

At the end of the 2011-2013 biennium, assets of the Normal School Fund included more than 70,000 acres of land and nearly $26.5 million in financial assets. Timber revenue contributes to principal growth.

In the 2011-2013 biennium, the Normal School Fund provided scholarships for the University of Wisconsin System.

In the 2011-2013 biennium, a total of $62.6 million went to public school libraries throughout the state—enough to provide a little more than two books per child per year.

Trust Fund Principal Investments Protect and Builds Communities, Creates Jobs

The BCPL invests the principal of the State Trust Funds in loans to municipalities and school districts through the State Trust Fund Loan Program. Over the past decade, more than $1.2 billion in State Trust Fund Loans have been used to spur economic development, improve roads, bridges and schools, purchase snow plows, ambulances and other public safety equipment, and finance other public projects in all 72 Wisconsin counties.

Oneida County

In Oneida County, State Trust Fund Loans totaling $3.4 million to the county helped to build the original plant and fund several expansions of a manufacturing facility leased to Advanced Barrier Extrusions, LLC (ABX) in Rhinelander.

Begun as a start-up company in 2005, ABX has created more than 42 new jobs in Rhinelander and Oneida County to manufacture and distribute high-quality packaging materials for the food, household and other industries.

The loan granted in 2012 is allowing the plant to expand and add another eight employees. The lease payments made by ABX flow back through the county to the State Trust Funds, while the manufacturer's annual payroll of $1.9 million helps feed the local economy.

*"We are a non-profit entity that had no assets when we broached the idea of building a facility to assist a startup firm in Oneida County. Without the confidence of the Oneida County Board in our development corporation and their willingness to borrow the funds from BCPL, this project would not have happened. I say it over and over again - Oneida County is positioned to grow, in part, because of access to the State Trust Funds." ## Town of Oconto

In 2012, the town of Oconto received a State Trust Fund Loan to build a new town hall, replacing a nearly 80 year-old building that had no running water or restroom facilities. The addition of a larger parking area also means that the citizens of the town no longer have to park on the shoulder of a state highway when voting or attending meetings.

The town's elected officials had investigated multiple funding sources and found the attractive interest rate, as well as the simplicity of the application process, to be the deciding factors in choosing to seek a loan from the BCPL.

"We feel very confident that had we not been able to get the State Trust Fund Loan with its low interest rate, we would never have been able to build this facility for our community. Knowing that the interest paid on the loan goes back to serve the public interest only confirms in our eyes that this program serves a vital role in the health of not only our community, but in all communities across the State of Wisconsin." Patrick Scanlan, Chairman, Town of Oconto

City of Waterloo

When a printing plant in Waterloo was shut down in 2004, 700 jobs were lost and a large tract of riverside land became a blight on the landscape. A $1 million State Trust Fund Loan to the city of Waterloo in 2013 is providing funds to demolish the abandoned building. In its place, an assisted living facility and a 64 unit apartment facility will beautify the property, revitalize the area for small businesses, improve access to the waterfront and improve the ability of larger employers to recruit new employees.

“The State Trust Fund Loan allowed the project to move quickly and respond to developer and municipal needs. A significant number of contractors and professional firms were engaged in the project nearly immediately after funding was secured. The Trust Fund Loan program is a phenomenal tool for communities with small or large short-term cash requirements to move a project forward.” Mo Hansen, Clerk/Treasurer, Waterloo, WI

Interest earned from BCPL investments that is distributed to public school libraries helps reduce local property taxes.

Village of Sturtevant

Unemployment in Racine County hit a high of 12.1% in 2010 causing great hardship for many families in the area. The recovery was bolstered in 2012 by a $4 million State Trust Fund Loan to the village of Sturtevant. The loan is providing development incentives to attract and help fund the construction of a 425,000 square foot distribution center for United Natural Foods Inc., the leading independent national distributor of natural, organic and specialty foods and related products. This $32 million project is expected to create 220 new full-time jobs.

City of Bayfield

With BCPL loans, the city of Bayfield has been able to install energy-efficient streetlights and replace aging water lines in the downtown area. The new streetlights cut costs, while retaining the vintage look of a city that is a popular tourist attraction.

Bayfield has used State Trust Fund Loans several times over the past few years because of the efficient and streamlined loan process.

“More communities should take advantage of this great opportunity to finance civic needs. An additional benefit is that net proceeds to BCPL are used to fund school libraries throughout Wisconsin. The city of Bayfield strongly recommends the BCPL loan program.” Larry MacDonald, Mayor, City of Bayfield

In the biennium, the Wheatland School District in Kenosha County received a State Trust Fund Loan to upgrade computer and Internet technology. Access to these resources gives Wheatland students the background they will need to compete in the regional and global marketplace.

For a small entity like Wheatland School District with limited resources, the State Trust Fund Loan process allowed for organizational efficiency. Staff did not have to spend additional time and resources on excessive loan paperwork.

Glendale – River Hills School District

The Glendale-River Hills School District in Milwaukee County used a State Trust Fund Loan to finance needed repairs and improvements. New flooring, roofing, wiring, painting and a number of upgrades helped create a safer, more energy-efficient school building.

“As a district, we would not have been able to do this project without the loan! BCPL loans not only allow us to create better learning facilities as well as safer buildings, but the proceeds of the loans go to help fund school libraries.” Larry Smalley, District Administrator, Glendale-River Hills School District

"I wish to thank BCPL for being such a great resource for economic development and support for our local school library in Crandon. The recent investment of BCPL funds into two Crandon businesses has helped provide a long runway for success for these major employers. Reducing uncertainty in business is important for long-term planning and stability. The support that the Crandon School District receives from the Board of Commissioners of Public Lands each year has helped provide tax relief for district taxpayers. With this support, our library is better suited to meet the educational needs for the future." Rob Jaeger, Mayor, Crandon

Other Investments

The BCPL is responsible for investing the principal of its State Trust Funds in accordance with the Wisconsin State Constitution and Chapter 24 of the state statutes. State statutes limit the investment of trust fund assets to fixed income debt instruments issued by certain government entities.

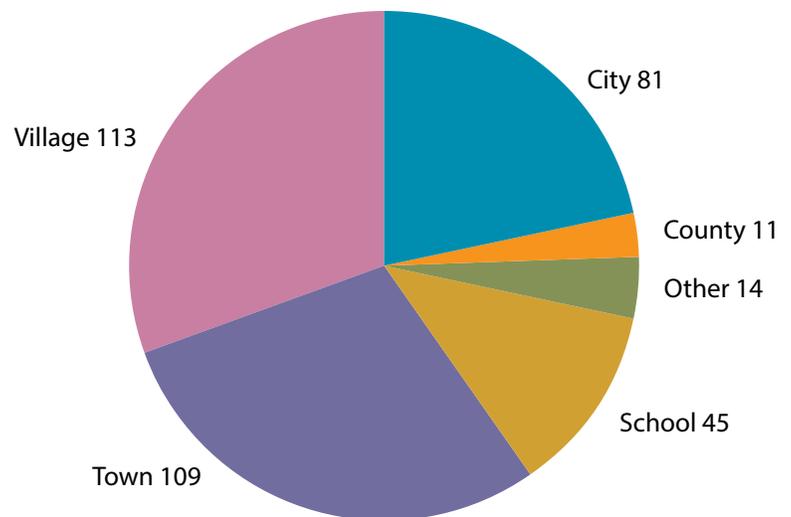

In addition to the State Trust Fund Loan Program, the BCPL has long invested in State of Wisconsin General Obligation Bonds. During this biennium, BCPL expanded the investment portfolios to include a substantial amount of revenue bonds issued by the State of Wisconsin as well as general obligation and revenue bonds issued by Wisconsin municipalities and school districts.

This proactive management strategy has allowed the BCPL to distribute more than $30 million in library aid for six consecutive years, a period that included the most difficult financial markets since the Great Depression.

Trust funds not invested in loans or bonds are maintained as a cash reserve in the State Investment Fund, a safe and liquid account managed by the State Investment Board.

New Loans Approved FY 2012 and 2013

Total number of loans: 373

"Other" includes Sanitary Districts, Lake Management Districts, Lake Protection and Rehabilitation Districts, and Federated Library Systems.

BCPL Aid Enhances Learning, Reduces Property Taxes

BCPL aid to public school libraries in the 2011-2013 biennium totaled $62.6 million. In most districts, this aid to libraries represents the only funding available to purchase books, newspapers and periodicals, computer hardware and software, web-based resources, and other library media materials.

This support not only enhances educational opportunities for students, but providing another source of school funding helps reduce property taxes for local homeowners.

Nearly $569 million in Common School Fund earnings have been distributed as public school library aid over the past 25 years.

Chequamegon School District

For the Chequamegon School District in northern Wisconsin, BCPL aid is the sole source of funding to purchase school library books and other media resources that encourage a love of reading and learning.

*"BCPL aid is crucial for districts whether they are rural or urban, whether they have 90 students or 10,000 students. These funds ensure that the children of our state are given an opportunity and resource that they will use for the rest of their lives. I believe that without these funds, schools would not have the ability to maintain the programs they have now, create an up-to-date and resourceful collection, and keep personnel within the districts." ## Germantown School District

The Germantown High School Library in Washington County serves roughly 1500 students, yet proudly reports more than 13,000 books in circulation per year. Of the library's funding, fully 100% comes from BCPL aid.

In the 2011-2013 biennium, BCPL funds went toward adding to the library's book collection as well as starting a virtual library with ebooks and audiobooks. BCPL aid has also funded computer equipment and research databases at Germantown High.

The top reading scores of Germantown High School students are due, in part, to the richness of the library's book collection and research materials.

*"Now more than ever, reading is an essential lifetime skill that we are trying to promote in kids. Our library, and other public school libraries in Wisconsin, would not exist in the same way without BCPL aid. Without a doubt, we are the envy of librarians in other states who don't have the consistency and level of financial support that the BCPL and State Trust Funds provide." ## Waunakee School District

At Waunakee High School in Dane County, the Library Media and Technology Center is the hub of learning, and must provide access to quality resources in multiple formats in order to meet the diverse learning needs of students and teachers.

In the 2011-2013 biennium, State Trust Fund earnings afforded the purchase of nearly 100% of learning materials for the high school library. These materials included print and electronic fiction, nonfiction, and reference materials; multimedia content; and research resources, such as online databases, that meet learning needs in specific content areas.

*"BCPL aid is vital to the success, and possibly the existence, of school libraries in Wisconsin. This model of funding ensures equity in access to quality information for all students and teachers across the state, regardless of economic conditions of schools and communities. Our students and teachers learn how to become effective, lifelong learners with the support of materials available to them because of the support of BCPL aid." In the spring of 2012, Luther Elementary School in Jefferson County used its BCPL fund allocation to purchase library books requested by teachers for specific literacy lessons. Despite the influx of technology in classrooms and homes, books are still extremely important and valuable to both students and teachers.

In the previous school year, using BCPL funds, Luther Elementary made a pilot purchase of seven iPads to explore their benefits to students. With the results of this experimentation proving their worth, the school was able to apply for and receive a grant that allowed for the purchase of another 25 devices.

STATE TRUST LANDS

State Trust Lands Provide Revenue, Protect Environment

The BCPL has sold more than 99% of the original State Trust Lands and, today, manages roughly 77,000 acres, most of them in northeastern Wisconsin.

Wisconsinites enjoy Trust Lands for hunting, fishing, trapping, and outdoor recreation. BCPL management of State Trust Lands provides timber revenue through sustainable timber management, while protecting water quality, biological diversity, and the natural beauty of our state.

WISCONSIN CONSTITUTION ARTICLE 10, SECTION 8

Provision shall be made by law for the sale of all school and university lands after they shall have been appraised...and the Commissioners...shall have power to withhold from sale any portion of such lands when they shall deem it expedient, and shall invest all moneys arising from the sale of such lands...

ATTENTION DEER HUNTERS

The Wisconsin Board of Commissioners of Public Lands invites hunters to visit our property this deer season.

The BCPL manages nearly 80,000 acres of School Trust Lands, primarily located in nine northern Wisconsin counties. All BCPL Trust Lands are open for hunting, fishing, trapping, and public recreation. Many parcels have a high concentration of deer, which adversely affects our ability to regenerate some important timber species due to excessive deer browsing.

To locate a BCPL parcel near you, visit our website at <http://bcpl.wisconsin.gov> and click "BCPL Ownership Maps" under "Quick Links" on the home page. You may also call our office in Lake Tomahawk at (715) 277-3366 for answers to any questions you may have about BCPL's School Trust Lands. Forestry staff is frequently in the field so please allow 24 hours for a reply to your call.

These lands have been held in trust for the benefit of public education since Wisconsin gained statehood in 1848. Please treat them respectfully.

We wish you a safe and successful hunting season.

Permanent hunting structures are prohibited on BCPL Trust Lands. ATVs are allowed on designated trails only.

Land Bank Authority ensures the permanent protection of 7,000 acres of ecologically-rare natural areas.

Land Bank Authority

In 2006, the Legislature voted unanimously to give the BCPL authority to “bank” proceeds from land sales and use them to purchase lands that improve timberland management, decrease the risk of forest fragmentation, and/or increase public access to the land.

Benefits of Land Bank Authority

Land Bank Authority has afforded numerous benefits to Wisconsinites and their communities.

- Trust Fund beneficiaries gain as the agency improves land management efficiency and expands timber income potential.
- The Northern Wisconsin economy benefits as working forests provide raw material for the timber and paper industries.
- Wisconsin’s tourism industry benefits as people enjoy greater access to and recreational opportunities on public lands.

Since inception of the Land Bank Program, the BCPL has:

- Increased productive timberlands by a net total of 9% or 2,959 acres.
- Decreased unproductive/wetland acres by 15% or 4,496.64 acres.
- Increased acres accessible to the public by more than 16% or 4,680 acres.

Land Bank Authority: Van Vliet Hemlocks

Located on nearly two miles of undeveloped lake shorelines in the township of Presque Isle in Vilas County, the Van Vliet Hemlocks is a very rare, old-growth, northern hardwood-hemlock forest that probably looks much as it did when first surveyed in 1862. This type of forest was plentiful up until the last half of the 1800s when nearly all of northern Wisconsin’s timber was either cut or burned.

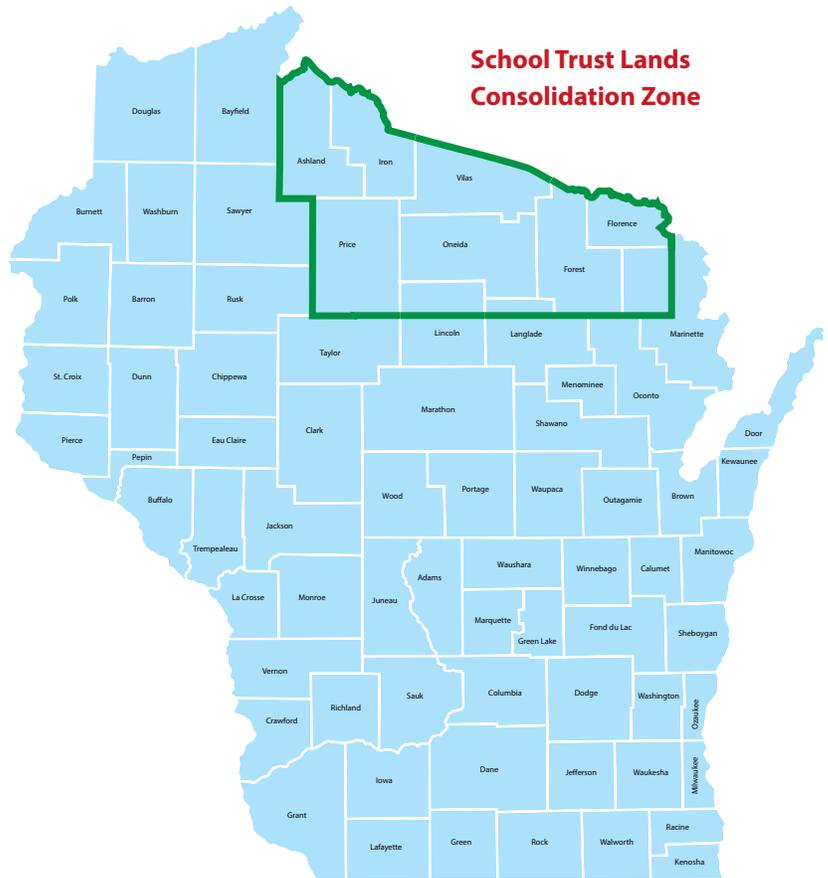

Sold by the BCPL in 2013 to the Wisconsin DNR using BCPL’s Land Bank Authority, this ancient ecosystem, home to a great diversity of trees, birds, frogs, amphibians and waterfowl, is now preserved as a recreational and educational resource for future generations.

Consolidating Trust Lands

In 2003, the BCPL approved a plan to consolidate land holdings to improve land management efficiency. The primary goals of this plan were to:

- increase the acreage of productive timber land,
- ensure protection of unique natural areas, and
- enhance public access for hunting, fishing, trapping and public recreation.

In the 2011-2013 biennium, the BCPL continued to improve land management efficiency.

Land Bank Authority: Crandon Timber

When Crandon Timber LLC indicated that its lands in the town of Ross in Forest County were for sale, the BCPL used its land bank authority to initiate a mutually beneficial transaction. A 1,480-acre block in the town of Ross was purchased to combine five BCPL State Trust Land parcels into one contiguous, more accessible, more productive parcel of 4,958 acres.

The Crandon Timber LLC tract added a significant inventory of diverse, fast-growing, quality hardwood sawtimber. This will result in two large additional hardwood timber sales for BCPL during the next decade and periodic timber harvests, thereafter.

The land purchase added an excellent logging road network and management infrastructure. The well-maintained road network will benefit future timber sales, as well as provide easy access for public uses such as hunting, fishing, trapping and outdoor recreation.

"We enjoy working with your staff of professional foresters. The timber sales that they set up are well laid out and if we have any questions or concerns somebody always gets back to us. The foresters seem to recognize the importance of the loggers in meeting their timber management objectives." Mark Huempfer, President, Wild Rivers Forestry, Inc.

90% of the BCPL's land holdings are now located within the board approved consolidation zone.

BCPL Information Technology Manager John Sissons

Tree Planting

BCPL staff and contract crews planted more than 52,000 trees on more than 207 acres in Oneida, Forest, Florence and Marinette counties during the 2011-2013 biennium. District staff also directly seeded seven acres of red pine in Oneida County.

In addition, BCPL staff tested alternative species in areas to offset drought conditions, climate change and disease, and remained focused on protecting plantings from the effects of climate change and deer browsing.

The BCPL tracks the timber harvest volume by species to compare harvest and growth rates to assess whether State Trust Land forests are managed sustainably.

Data on Timber Volume, Timber Sales and Land Bank Transactions are found in the Appendix.

Stewardship

The Board of Commissioners of Public Lands and its agency staff are proud stewards of public lands in Wisconsin. Large forested lands are diminishing assets of enormous value and under growing threat of being lost forever. It is imperative that we protect what we still have so that nature can continue to provide clean air, clean water, raw materials such as timber and pulpwood, and the lands that support the $12 billion outdoor recreation industry in our state.

Inventory System

In the 2011-2013 biennium, the BCPL set up a continuous forest inventory system. Inventory data serve as the crucial information basis for comprehensive management plans and decisions.

Thus far, roughly 300 plots have been inventoried to monitor such factors as tree species composition, growth, timber volumes, and tree regeneration, among others.

LAND RECORDS

A rich history of the State of Wisconsin may be found in the BCPL archives in the form of land survey records, land sales records, federal land patents, state land patents, appraisals and case files of individual land transactions. The majority of these records date from 1848 to 1900.

In the 2011–2013 biennium, the BCPL office was moved to the state Department of Administration building at 101 E. Wilson St., Madison. In this location, fragile land records are now better protected by a state-of-the-art temperature and humidity-controlled room that will preserve them for future generations.

From Generation to Generation

A wealth of information resides in the historic land records in the BCPL archives. Much of this information is unique—not found in any other repository.

An example is the record of a parcel of land in Adams County that was part of a land grant from the federal government to Wisconsin upon statehood in 1848.

In 1865, Amelia Vanalstine applied to purchase this parcel described as North West Quarter of the South West Quarter of Section Sixteen, Township Fourteen North, Range Six East. She made a down payment on the land and agreed to pay off the principal within 30 years. She received a Certificate to document this transaction.

Amelia did not retain the land, however, and over the course of the next fourteen years, the Certificate and the obligation for payment were assigned to several different people. The assignments, handwritten by the individuals involved, are recorded on the back of the Certificate. These interim transfers are among the unique information which is found nowhere else.

The last assignment was to John Jerome in 1879. He paid off the obligation in 1890. The Commissioners of the Public Lands (now the BCPL) then issued a State Land Patent to John Jerome, and ownership of the parcel passed to him.

According to the Adams County Register of Deeds, this parcel still belongs to the Jerome family.

Public Access to BCPL Land Records

Used primarily for legal and scholarly research, the Land records held by the BCPL are available for public inspection and use. Because most of these records are more than a century old, the agency places reasonable restrictions on their use to ensure their long-term preservation.

- Records may be consulted, by appointment, in the Board's office in Madison.
- Photocopies or digital images of specific records may be ordered by writing the Land Record Archivist. The format, size or condition of some records may preclude copying.

University Fund Balance Sheet

In 1838, Congress granted to the Territory of Wisconsin the equivalent of two townships, or 72 square miles of land, to be sold to support a university. In 1854, Congress granted an additional two townships of land to benefit a university. Most of these lands were sold soon after Wisconsin obtained title, and no provision was made in the law for adding to the principal of this fund.

Therefore, the principal balance of the University Fund does not change from year to year. Earnings are distributed to the University of Wisconsin annually.

	FY 2012	FY 2013
Principal Balance	$234,129.75	$234,129.75
Fund Earnings	$7,444.23	$8,395.28

Agricultural College Fund Balance Sheet

The Agricultural College Fund was established with a grant of land pursuant to an 1862 act of Congress. Proceeds from the sale of these lands were to be invested in a perpetual endowment fund to support "colleges of agriculture and mechanical arts" in each of the states - our nation's land-grant colleges.

This Act, also known as the "Morrill Act," provided that each state was entitled to 30,000 acres of land for each member of Congress representing the state at that time. Wisconsin had eight Congressional representatives, so received title to 240,000 acres of land under this law. These lands were sold shortly after Wisconsin obtained title, and no provision was made in the law for adding to the principal of this fund.

Therefore, the principal balance of the Agricultural College Fund does not change from year to year. Earnings are distributed to the University of Wisconsin annually.

Land Bank Transactions

The primary goals of the Land Bank Program are to increase the timber production capacity of State Trust Lands; transfer natural area quality lands to the Department of Natural Resources; help consolidate BCPL lands in larger, more efficient tracts; and increase public access to existing BCPL lands. All sales and purchases were evaluated based on Board approved criteria, which comply with the land bank statute.

Each cord of pulpwood is approximately equivalent to 420 board feet of sawtimber so that total timber harvest volume in the 2011-2013 biennium was 10,888,110 board feet.

Federal Flood Control Aid to Counties

Over the years, the federal government has acquired parcels of Wisconsin land for flood control, navigation, and other related purposes. These federal lands are exempt from local property taxes.

The Federal Flood Control Act of 1954 provides federal aid to compensate local taxing authorities for the loss of property tax revenue on these lands. The total aid is equal to 75% of any lease payments that the federal government receives on these lands.

The BCPL receives this aid from the federal government and passes it through directly to counties without retaining any portion. During the 2011-13 biennium, the BCPL distributed more than $117,000 in federal flood control aid to Wisconsin communities.
