AGENCY DESCRIPTION

The commission consists of a chairperson, appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a six-year term.

The commission is charged with administering processes established by the Wisconsin Employment Peace Act, Municipal Employment Relations Act and State Employment Labor Relations Act (Subchapters I, IV and V of Chapter 111, Wisconsin Statutes) to avoid the costly consequences of strikes, lockouts and other interruptions of services and production. The commission's labor relations work includes conducting elections to determine bargaining units and bargaining representatives; issuing decisions regarding unfair labor practice, election, unit clarification and declaratory ruling cases; mediating collective bargaining disputes; and providing arbitration services for grievances arising over the interpretation and application of existing collective bargaining agreements. The commission also issues decisions regarding appeals of certain state personnel actions under s. 230.45(1), Wisconsin Statutes, and provides labor management consensus bargaining training, designed to enable the parties to work together to achieve common goals.

MISSION

The mission of the commission is to promote peaceful and harmonious labor-management relations by professionally and impartially administering Wisconsin's municipal, state and private sector labor relations statutes to protect and promote the interrelated interests of the public, the employee and the employer. Through its administration of the statutes, the commission aims to provide taxpayers, labor, management and the public with cost-effective services that promote employment peace, employee freedom to choose whether to bargain collectively, uninterrupted production of goods and services, orderly and constructive employment relations, and efficient administration of state and local government.

The Governor recommends modifying current law to expand collective bargaining rights for state and local government employees. The Governor recommends: (a) establishing collective bargaining, mediation and arbitration rights for front-line workers and any other employee in a collective bargaining unit containing a front-line worker; (b) eliminating the required annual recertification requirement for representatives of all bargaining units; (c) requiring a majority vote of all bargaining unit members voting to recertify a representative, as opposed to a majority vote of all of a unit's members; and (d) requiring that upon changes in policy impacting wages, working hours or working conditions (and if there are no such changes then on at least a quarterly basis), employers meet and consult with representatives from all bargaining units other than public safety, transit or front-line worker qualified units with collective bargaining rights. Front-line workers are defined as employees with regular job duties that include interacting with members of the public or large populations, or directly involving the maintenance of public works. The Governor also recommends providing position authority and associated funding to support these provisions.

The Governor also recommends amending state statutes to require a local government employee grievance procedure to include an impartial hearing from the commission, during which the grievant would be entitled to legal representation. The Governor further recommends providing an additional position and associated funding to support this initiative.
