What is WGRA?

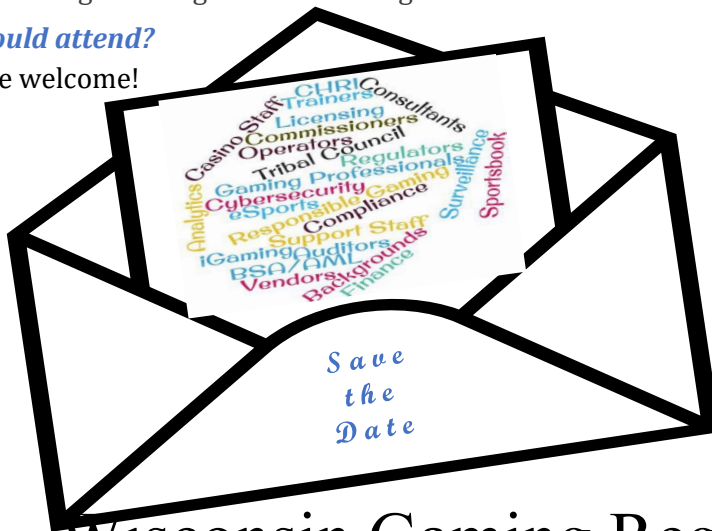

The Wisconsin Gaming Regulators Association, otherwise known as WGRA, consists of regulators from all eleven (11) tribes in the state of Wisconsin, as well as the State's Office of Indian Gaming and Regulatory Compliance. The WGRA is a united group of regulators who jointly discuss gaming and regulatory matters, share their knowledge, and support each other with regulatory training. You can find out more on Linkedin and Facebook!

Why attend the WGRA Annual Conference?

- Because you are INVITED! And it's AMAZING! ...And we are a GAMING FAMILY here to SUPPORT you!
- FREE registration!
- It's SUMMER in Wisconsin! Come visit the Oneida Nation and Green Bay, Wisconsin!
- Knowledge sharing and networking with REGULATORS and OPERATORS from across the nation.

Who should attend?

ALL are welcome!

Block your calendars, book your hotel room, set up your digital business card, and get ready to listen, learn, and share your regulatory best practices with all who attend!

Look for registration and agenda details mid-March 2024!
